

Trying to keep XM and Sirius from selectively broadcasting in specific local markets is one thing - but preventing them from doing traffic and weather on a technicality is completely different. If terrestrial broadcasters want to compete, they will have to improve their content! Regulation is not the way to solve this problem! Please REJECT the NABs petition.